

I am against any reduction in my freedom of choice or the freedom of ISP providers to provide services to me. I do not trust Qwest, my local telephone company, to provide either the service or the low rates I am enjoying with an independent provider. Considering the bent of the current administration, I am amazed that I have to comment of the benefits of capitalism.

Sincerely,
Vance Cowan